LAW SECRETARIAT

Dated 26th December 1945.

No. Fl. 4405. In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-rule (9) of Rule 94-A of the Defence of India Rules as applied to Mysore and in supersession of Notification No. Fl. 1247—G. F. 30-44-48, dated the 3rd October 1944, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore are pleased to grant exemption from the provisions of the said rules, as follows, namely:—

(a) from the provisions of sub-clause (i) of clause (a) of sub-rule (2), and of the sub-rule (4) and sub rule (7)— the issue of securities other than debentures being an issue made by a person in the ordinary course of his business and solely for the purposes of that business to another person carrying on the business of banking or to such other person's nominee in respect of advances or overdrafts from time to time granted or to be granted by such other person;

(b) from the provisions of sub-rule (5) in so far as such provisions relate to any document publicly offering for sale—

(i) any security issued in Mysore before the 25th October 1943, and

(ii) any security issued outside Mysore before the date being a security of a class of which no further issue has been made after that date by or on behalf of the same company without the consent or recognition of the Government of Mysore;

(c) from all the provisions of the said Rule—

the issue of securities by any company, not being a banking company or an insurance company or a provident society incorporated as a company, provided that the value of the consideration involved in such issue together with the value of the consideration involved in any previous issue of securities made by such company within the twelve months next preceding such issue shall not exceed in all one lakh of rupees;

in this paragraph the expression "the consideration involved" means, in the case of securities without a nominal value, the amount to be raised by the issue of the securities and, in the case of securities with a nominal value, the sum of the total nominal value and of any premium, entrance fee or other payment which the person subscribing to the securities may be called upon to pay;

(d) from the provisions of sub-rule (8)—

(i) securities the issue of which has involved a contravention of sub-rule (2), sub-rule (4) or sub-rule (5) if such contravention has been condoned under the provisions of sub-rule (6);

(ii) any security transferred by the operation of the law of inheritance or succession or by the decree of a competent court.

In this order the expressions "securities", "banking company", "insurance company" and "provident society" shall have the meanings, respectively assigned to them by clause (a) of sub-rule (i) of Rule 94-A of the Defence of India Rules, 1939, section 277-F of the Mysore Companies Act, 1938, clause (7) of sections 2 and section 65 of an Act to regulate and control Insurance Business in the State (Act No. XXII of 1939).

REVENUE SECRETARIAT

Dated 18th December 1945.

No. R. 3995-97—R. M. 6-45-27. It is notified for general information that, under section 1 (2) of the Record of Rights Act No. X of 1927 Government are pleased to direct that the provisions of the said Act shall be extended to Jodi Kalasetthalli, Gubbi Taluk.

2. The Record is intended to check litigation in regard to land and to facilitate its disposal by the Courts, to reduce unnecessary expenditure by the raiyats in executing and registering documents and to protect them against fraud and fabrication of false claims. It will also be of assistance to Government as well as the raiyats in the distribution of assessment among the various hissadars, the grant of Takavi and Land Improvement Loans and the grant of suspension or remission of land revenue.

3. To facilitate the accurate preparation of the Record of Rights, the Preliminary Record will first be prepared by the Shanbhogs to the best of their information in the prescribed Form and every case will be duly investigated by a Special Revenue Inspector. There will be a check of the Preliminary Record by the Amildar or other officer specially authorised by the Superintendent of Land Records, Survey and Settlement or by the Deputy Commissioner, in this behalf. Occupants and persons interested in the land are required to furnish every information that may be within their knowledge to the Investigating Officers in order to ensure accuracy in the preparation of this Record which will form the basis of the future Records of Rights.

4. All persons interested in the land are required to render every reasonable assistance to officers of the Department of Land Records when they come to the village to measure the hissas and to conduct enquiries in cases of disputed boundary lines between hissas in the field, after giving the prescribed notice.

5. The attention of the public is invited to the provisions of Section 7 of the Record of Rights Act requiring them on requisition by a Revenue Officer, engaged in compiling or revising the Record of Rights to furnish or produce information and documents needed for the correct compilation or revision thereof within one month from the date of such requisition. Failure to comply with this requisition and secure registration of their rights will render occupants and holders of interests in land liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 5 (recoverable as an arrear of land revenue) besides depriving them of the advantages enumerated above. The officer to whom any information is furnished or before whom any documents are produced in accordance with the requisition will give a written acknowledgment therefor in the Form prescribed to the person furnishing or producing the same and shall endorse on any such document, before returning it to him, a note under signature stating the fact of its production and the date thereof.
